An excellent new 140 m² apartment in a recently built development. Its interior, with a practical and functional layout, has two suites and an office in the private area and, in the social area, a large living room with an open-plan connection to the large, fully-equipped kitchen. It boasts top quality finishes, including floating oak floors and lacquered carpentry, false ceilings and pre-installation of air conditioning, bathrooms with suspended crockery and a kitchen with lacquered furniture and Bosh appliances. This beautiful apartment has great sun exposure, which makes it very bright and it also benefits from ample outdoor space through its terrace and balconies located on both fronts of the property. With plenty of sto...
